TURK-RUSSIAN WAR DECLARED

'EXPLAIN!'—POWERS TO PORTE

JAMES D. PHELAN, LET US HAVE THE TRUTH FROM YOU

Some Pointed Questions for the Secretary of the Interior to Answer Tonight

James D. Phelan, Democratic nominee for the United States Senate, is bringing Franklin K. Lane, secretary of the interior, to Oakland tonight for the purpose of making a speech and giving reasons why in his opinion Honorable Joseph R. Knowland, Republican nominee for the United States Senate, should not be elected to the high office to which he aspires.

Everybody knows that Mr. Phelan has spent vast sums of money to try and defeat Mr. Knowland and now he comes to the home of Honorable Joseph R. Knowland and will ask its citizens to believe that Congressman Knowland, who has served the people of this county for seventeen years in a legislative capacity, is not a proper man for them to trust in public office.

Mr. Knowland was born and raised in this county. Every time he has run for office he has been returned by an increased majority until at the election two years ago he was again sent to Congress, after ten years' service in that body, by the crowning majority of 12,000 votes. Joseph R. Knowland is not only respected in this community at large, but he is loved by his constituents. Every man, woman and child in this great county knows that Joseph R. Knowland is an honest man and that for seventeen years no man or corporation has contributed one dollar to any political campaign he has made. His record for integrity, honesty and good work is above reproach. When Mr. Phelan and Mr. Lane appear on the platform of this city tonight, THE TRIBUNE in all fairness asks them to inform the people of this county where James D. Phelan stands on the following counts:

COUNT NUMBER 1.—Mr. Secretary, you are secretary of the interior, and as one of the members of the cabinet of the United States THE TRIBUNE respects your position, but it respectfully asks you if it is not a fact that you are receiving a salary of $12,000 a year from the people of the United States, and if it is not your duty to be in Washington attending to the affairs of state instead of doing politics in the State of California?

COUNT NUMBER 2.—Mr. Secretary, will you kindly tell the people of this city who has paid your expenses to and from the east and who is paying your campaign expenses while you are touring the State of California?

COUNT NUMBER 3.—Mr. Secretary, Mr. Phelan is spending thousands of dollars in newspapers today declaring that Mr. Knowland insulted the president of the United States. Will you please read from the Congressional Record the exact words used by Joseph R. Knowland in his magnificent speech in the House of Representatives when he was gallantly fighting against the surrender of all the rights of the United States to send its ships through the Panama canal free of toll? If you have not that statement at hand I will give it to you and to Mr. Phelan from the Congressional Record.

"Mr. Knowland—I entertain a high regard for the president of the United States. His patriotism and honesty of purpose I would not attempt to question. That mystery surrounds the negotiations is due to a lack of frankness."

Now, Mr. Phelan, stand up and tell the truth in your advertisements about Joseph R. Knowland.

COUNT NUMBER 4.—Mr. Secretary, will you kindly tell the people of Alameda county where Mr. Phelan stands on the great issue of prohibition. He says and you say that he will support and stand by all the policies inaugurated by President Wilson. Is it not a fact that in the State of New Jersey President Woodrow Wilson took an active part in endeavoring to make that State dry? Will James D. Phelan support the president in that policy? In speaking for James D. Phelan, will you tell the people whether he is for a wet or dry State in California?

COUNT NUMBER 5.—Mr. Secretary, I want to call your attention to a report made by William A. Spooner, secretary of the Central Labor Council of Alameda county in which he says concerning Mr. Phelan: "His action during the teamsters' strike in San Francisco in 1901 classes him as a candidate antagonistic to organized labor."

Your attention is also called to an affidavit made by Andrew J. Furuseth, labor leader of San Francisco, telling of his conversation with James D. Phelan during the teamsters' strike in San Francisco in 1901, at which time Furuseth protested against the clubbing of union men by the police. Now, Mr. Secretary, tell us what Mr. Phelan said to Mr. Furuseth on that occasion about the clubbing of inoffensive union men.

COUNT NUMBER 6.—Mr. Secretary, is it not a fact that Mr. James D. Phelan is an aristocrat of the highest type and that he has no sympathy whatever in the cause of the common people?

COUNT NUMBER 7.—In Mr. Phelan's published advertisements he is making a great point of the fact that Joseph R. Knowland opposed President Woodrow Wilson on the Panama canal tolls bill. It is conceded that our congressman made a brave fight for the interests of the people of the United States. The Democratic National Platform, Mr. Secretary and Mr. Phel-

ADVANCE IS CLAIMED BY ALLIES

When Theodore Roosevelt was President of the United States he said:

"I wish the people of this country would send more Knowlands to the legislative halls of this nation."

When William Howard Taft was President of the United States he said:

"I have found Mr. Knowland to be a constructive statesman. The people of California are to be congratulated upon having such an earnest and faithful representative."

French War Officer Reports Losses of Enemy as Heavy

By Associated Press.
PARIS, Oct. 31, 2:35 p. m.—A semi-official announcement was made in Paris this afternoon as follows:

"In one of our attacks delivered the day before yesterday a village strongly held by the enemy's infantry supported by artillery was taken by a detachment of French unmounted cavalry, belonging to two dragoon regiments. The men charged with their lances in their hands. The men left in the village more than 200 dead and abandoned 200 wounded."

GENERAL ADVANCE ORDERED.
By Associated Press.

LONDON, Oct. 31, 1:40 p. m.—The impression created here by the latest news is that a general advance of the allied forces in France and Belgium has been ordered, so main interest again is centered in the cockpit covering thirty or forty miles from the seaboard.

The general trend of the movements of both the German and the allied armies is, for the moment, according to both British and French official statements, in a northerly and northeasterly direction, which is in accordance with the desire of the allied commanders, but that Germany has resumed her hammer blows with greater energy than ever is attested by the British official information bureau.

In spite of these stubborn counter strokes it is claimed that all the

Harvard Wins Great Game of Football

CAMBRIDGE, Mass., Oct. 31.—Harvard won one of the greatest football meetings between East and West on the Cambridge field this afternoon, with Michigan taking the lead over the opponents in the second quarter. The two teams played to a standstill in the first quarter, the Westers apparently having the stronger of the men. Near the half way mark in the second period of the game a successful running pass by Harvard threw the Michiganans off their stride and several decisive gains that followed netted a touchdown for Harvard. The wonderful kicking and offensive work of Spaul of Michigan was a feature of the game.

In the third period the ball was almost continually in Harvard's territory, but the Michiganans were not sufficiently decisive to enable them to put the ball over the line. Michigan's line crushing tactics were beginning to tell on her backfield, and Harvard held for down on her 15-yard line, and Francke punted to the center of the field. The third period ended with the score still 7 to 0 in favor of the Easterners.

The fourth quarter was much the same story. The Michigan men were unable to make steady progress against the wonderful defense of the Eastern eleven, and the period brought no score.

Garcia approached Police Wilks late last night and demanded the return of $10 bail he had posted to insure his appearance in the police court today to answer to a minor charge. Wilks told Garcia he would have to see the police judge. Garcia then opened fire, wounding the officer. Wilks and Francke rushed to the aid of Wilks but fell before the bullets of Garcia, who afterward was overpowered by deputy sheriffs.

The man was placed in jail here, but angry citizens began to gather. There were threats of lynching and the prisoner was hurried over to Ventura.

Election Officers Receive Instruction

Several hundred election officers last night attended the school for instructions inaugurated by County Clerk Cook, when they met at the Hall of Records and were shown how the ballots may be counted next Tuesday in the shortest time. Among the questions asked by women present was whether smoking would be permitted on the men on the election boards, and whether the officers should act as handwriting experts in comparing signatures on the precinct rosters with the original affidavits. They were told that they could regulate the smoking question to suit themselves, but that they would be expected to see that only qualified persons voted.

OXNARD, Oct. 31.—William Garcia of El Rio was hurried to the county jail at Ventura today to save him from angry citizens, after he had shot and seriously wounded three of Oxnard's police force of five men late last night. The wounded men are:

CHARLES D. FREEMAN, patrolman, shot in the chest.

WILLIAM WILKS, patrolman, shot in the neck.

Kelly probably will recover, but the two other officers are in a critical condition.

FRENCH GOVERNMENT PLANS TO RETURN TO PARIS NOV. 20

PARLIAMENT OF FRANCE TO MEET DECEMBER 15, PASS EMERGENCY LAWS

By Associated Press.

PARIS, Oct. 31, 7:10 a. m.—Official announcement was made today that the government would return to Paris from Bordeaux November 20, and that Parliament would meet December 15 to pass emergency laws.

Little by little Paris appears to be returning to more normal conditions. The shops in the Avenue d'Opera, which had their doors locked and the windows white-washed, have been re-opened. In another restaurant or bar on the boulevards or elsewhere resumes business, and the newspapers which ceased to publish at the time of the mobilization have again begun to appear. The question of re-opening the Bourse also is discussed.

TURKEY COMMITTED.

Suspicion as to the effect of the position taken by Turkey varies widely. In some quarters it is argued even that the acts of the former German cruisers Goeben and Breslau will be disavowed by the Porte. But the well-authenticated news of the departure of the Russian ambassador from Constantinople seems to confirm Turkey beyond recall.

Delayed telegrams from Constantinople indicated as late as last Wednesday that the British ambassador had received assurances that Turkey was determined to preserve neutrality.

The withdrawal now, along with the progress of the allies at other points, as officially announced is taken by many as marking the first stages of an impending victory.

Much interest is taken in the hot fighting in the vicinity of Ypres, where the allies have been gaining because of the great importance of the position to the Germans. Ypres, according to German military men, is the center of the German position between Lille and the sea. They have said that they could not continue their advance unless assured of the possession of it.

"If Ypres is conquered we will have the route opened as far as the heights of Stomer, 22 miles southeast of Calais," is a statement, and remain on the defensive until the battle of Flanders ends with the capture of Calais. Such a movement would release three or four army corps from Silesia to Belgium.

REND BACK INVADERS.

The Russian tactics of bending back the line of invaders in Russian Poland, one section at a time, the retreat of each section endangering the position of the section next to it on the south, appears to London observers to have been successful every-

TO-DAY'S WAR DEVELOPMENTS

The story of the European war was again slow in telling today, but such fragments of news as the censors permitted to pass indicated that along the North Sea, the chief point of present concern for the nations involved, it was still a battle of give and take.

Immediate interest was a semi-official note from Rome, indicating that Italy might take a definite stand in the struggle. It is said that the Island of Sasebo, commanding the harbor of Avlona, Albania, ownership of which has long been disputed by Greece and Italy, has been seized by Italian forces.

Turkey's hostile acts against Russia can place her at war with all the allied powers. It was said at the state department in Washington today that diplomatic representatives of these powers were preparing to leave Constantinople.

The German point of view of the Russo-Turkish war is presented for the first time in a dispatch from Berlin. Earlier advices telling of Turkey's attack on Russian ports and vessels apparently came from Berlin. It is said that it was in reality Russia which started the war. Turkey's action is said in the German capital to have been a natural sequence to the Russian attack on Turkish integrity.

Italy is being urged by the new Nationalist party to plunge into the conflict and in view of Turkey's action touching so closely upon the disposition of territory along the Mediterranean in which Italy is vitally interested.

The increasing confidence of the French is indicated in the unofficial announcement in Paris that the French government will return to that city from Bordeaux on November 20.

Announce Refugee Ship Was Torpedoed

Society Girl Would Have Name Changed

ALAMEDA, Oct. 31.—Miss Doris Louise Henn, prominent society girl and equestrienne who some time ago started secretly by engaging in the horse raising business with Mr. J. A. Hill, today petitioned the Superior Court for permission to change her name to Henn. She joined in this action by her brother, George Paul Henn. The petitioners are children of W. O. Henn of 1859 San Jose avenue.

For some time past Miss Henn has gone under the name of Henn. With her partner she has large stables and a stock farm in Encino.

FLOWER SHOP OPEN SUNDAY

Owing to the many people who have expressed a desire to see the display of beautiful plants and flowers at the flower show, the Chamber of Commerce will be open to the public tomorrow until 6 o'clock in the evening. Young and old congregated yesterday afternoon and evening and today there was a steady stream of visitors, anxious to view the products of the bay cities. One enterprising teacher of the Lafayette school brought about thirty of her pupils yesterday afternoon and it is said that the questions that were propounded were innumerable and varied.

END OF TURKEY?

ROME, Oct. 31.—The Russian Ambassador to Italy, A. Krupenski, in a statement here today regarding the Turkish attacks in the Black Sea, said that the action would mark the end of Turkey as an European state. The Serbian minister, L. Michalovich, said Turkish intervention would help to a solution of long pending questions, such as that of the Dardanelles.

GERMAN REAR ITALY TAKES FIGHTING AT GUARD FALLS ALBANIAN ISLAND

VERDUN IS NOTABLE

WASHINGTON, Oct. 31.—Stubborn fighting is in progress on the east Prussian front between the Russians and Germans and the Americans suffered heavy losses near Tarlow on October 29 at the hands of the Russians, who took 1000 prisoners according to a Russian foreign office dispatch received here today at the Russian embassy.

The text of the dispatch received from the foreign office at Petrograd follows:

"On the East Prussian front stubborn fighting continues. The attacks of the Germans near Pakaljewo are being steadily repulsed by our troops. On the left bank of the Vistula the German rear guard, under our pressure, fell back to the line from Lodz to Varhosz. Among other military booty we have captured ammunition columns, heavy artillery and aeroplanes."

"Near Tarlow the retreating Austrians were intercepted on October 29 by our troops, who had crossed the Vistula to the south of Jozefow. Under our crossfire the enemy suffered heavy losses and we took 1000 prisoners."

"In the Carpathians the main activity of the Austrians is directed to the country around Turka."

CROWN PRINCE FAILS.

By Associated Press. LONDON, Oct. 31.—The Petrograd correspondent of the Daily Mail asserts that the German Crown Prince, at his own request, had charge of the recent German operations to force a passage of the Vistula, break the Russian center, reduce the fortress of Lvov and disorganize the Russian army before winter sets in.

"For this plan very large forces were assembled," the correspondent says. "The best Prussian troops were allotted to the Crown Prince in the center, with heavy siege guns and Austrian cavalry. On the left wing General Von Hindenburg commanded the Bavarians, while the Austrian forces were on the right wing. The general idea was for the center to attack Lvov and the wings should envelop and crush the Russians."

"The unexpected vigor of the Russian counter attack carried all before it. The Crown Prince's army gave way, abandoning much material and thirty-six heavy guns, which were bogged in the mud.

"All attempts to rally the Austro-German forces were in vain and on Tuesday the Crown Prince arrived back at Radom, whence he had set out a fortnight before with such high hopes, beaten and a fugitive."

"He then tried to establish his army along the line from Jedlinsko to Iza, with Radom as the center, but the vigor of the Russian cavalry pursuit prevented this. The Russians entered Radom next day and the pursuit continues."

CONFER REGARDING FOREIGN EXCHANGE

WASHINGTON, Oct. 31.—The effort to redress conditions in the foreign exchange market was continued yesterday at the treasury department in a conference between Sir George Paish and Basil E. Blackett, representing the English treasury; Governor Harcourt and Paul M. Warburg of the Federal Reserve Board; and A. H. Wiggin and Benjamin Strong Jr., representing New York banks.

The conference adjourned to meet again today without reaching the point where a definite agreement was announced. All those present took a pledge of secrecy as to any plans proposed.

Despite the lack of official disclosure, however, it became apparent last night that the conferences have resulted in concrete proposals designed to take care of American obligations to England in a manner which will be satisfactory to American bankers, the treasury department and the English government.

Rare Tapestry Saved in Rheims Cathedral

PARIS, Oct. 31.—Forty-two pieces of tapestry of great value were saved from the Rheims Cathedral, including seventeen pieces representing the history of Christ, by Daniel Peppercorn, a gift from Henri de Lorraine, Archbishop of Rheims, from 1622 to 1641, and seventeen pieces representing the life of the Holy Virgin, given in 1520 by Robert de Jenonecourt, Archbishop of Rheims.

They were among them also two pieces considered the best produced by the Gothic manufactory, representing the Acts of the Apostles.

For some time past Miss Henn has gone under the name of Henn. With her partner she has large stables and a stock farm in Encino.

Demand Release of U. S. Copper Cargoes

MINISTRY SITS CONTINUOUSLY.

By Associated Press.

LONDON, Oct. 31, 7:10 a. m.—The correspondent of the Morning Post in Petrograd sends his paper the following:

"The statement published here that the guns of the cruiser Goeben were turned on the Sultan's palace in order to make him yield to the German demand probably is untrue."

A dispatch to the Central News from Petrograd says that up to a late hour Friday no declaration of war had been received from Turkey. Neither the Russian Ambassador or the Turkish Ambassador have left their posts, the dispatch says, and continues:

"Consternation prevails in Constantinople and the Turkish ministry is sitting continuously. The secretary of the Turkish embassy in Petrograd says that he hopes the misunderstanding will soon be cleared up. The head of the Moslems in Russia condemns the folly of Turkey and declares that his followers are loyal to the Russian Emperor."

ENVOYS TO LEAVE CONSTANTINOPLE.

By Associated Press.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 31.—Word reached the State Department today that diplomatic representatives of the allies were making preparations to leave Constantinople. Armstrong, who is alleged to have embezzled $3000 from the Honolulu Lodge of the Loyal Order of Moose, while acting as its treasurer. Armstrong was arrested here four months ago and fought extradition. In a decision handed down on October 19th the United States Court of Appeals denied his appeal that the statutes did not permit his extradition to Hawaiian territory.

BETTER THAN CALOMEL

Thousands Have Discovered Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets Are a Harmless Substitute

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets—the substitute for calomel—are a mild and sure laxative, and their effect on the liver is almost instantaneous. They are the result of Dr. Edwards' determination not to harm his patients, and he has brought with him his olive oil tablets, which are the best laxative.

These pleasant little tablets do the good that calomel does but have no bad after effects. They don't injure the teeth like strong liquids or calomel. They take away the trouble of constipation. What cure the liver at the expense of the teeth? Calomel sometimes plays havoc with the gums. So do strong liquids.

It is best not to take calomel, but to let Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets take its place.

Most headaches, "Gullness" and that lazy feeling come from constipation and a disordered liver. Take Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets when you feel "joggy" and heavy. Note how they "clear" clouded brain and how they "pink up" the spirit. At 10c and 25c per box. All druggists.

Fears for Fate of Brussels Buildings

By Associated Press.

PARIS, Oct. 31.—It is announced that James Hennessy's chestnut horse, Lord Loris which had captured many turf events and brought its owner a fortune in purses was killed while serving at the front as an officer's mount. The horse had been ridden by the jockey, Alec Carter, who was recently killed in action while serving as a captain of the French Dragoons. The army, in requisitioning the horse, paid his owner 4000 francs ($800).

Lord Loris' most recent turf achievement was the winning of the grand steeplechase de Paris valued at $30,000 at the Auteuil course on June 21 last.

Coal Supply Fails; Cruisers Captured

By Associated Press.

PARIS, Oct. 31.—Maurice Maeterlinck, the Belgian author, in a signed article in the Figaro, reviewing the phases of the war in Belgium, still expresses fear for the fate of the grand place (market place) the Hotel de Ville (the town hall) and the Cathédrale (Brussels). He says he is certain and knows from a sure personal source that they have been shelled and only a spark is needed to reduce them to debris.

SOLDIERS PREFER CHOCOLATE

Quite recently a gentleman in Europe, observing the passage of some troops through a village, noticed the women, in their enthusiasm, offering little gifts to the soldiers, and, making some inquiries, ascertained that the soldiers almost invariably asked for chocolate or oranges. Lately European governments have made large purchases of chocolate, finding that it is the favorite emergency ration on account of its small bulk and the large amount of nutriment it contains.

For many years in this country Walter Baker & Co.'s chocolate has been recognized as an exceedingly valuable article of food; chocolate containing, as one authority has stated, "More flesh-forming matter than beef."

JAMES D. PHELAN, LET US HAVE THE TRUTH FROM YOU

Ian, declared for free tolls for American coastwise ships. A leading Democrat in the California Legislature introduced a resolution which passed unanimously endorsing the free toll policy of your party and practically every commercial body in this State passed resolutions demanding that no toll be levied upon American coastwise ships through this American waterway, contending that the same policy should govern as in the case of all American waterways on which we have expended millions of dollars. You, Mr. Phelan, favored the repeal of this provision, did you not?

COUNT NUMBER EIGHT—The Democratic speaker of the House of Representatives, Hon. Champ Clark, termed this surrender an "un speakable humiliation of the American republic." Honorable Oscar Underwood, Democratic leader of the house, protesting against this repudiation of the party platform and the surrender of American rights, declared: "Our whole difficulty in the matter arises from the un-American spirit of surrender that some of our own people have exhibited towards this important question from the very beginning." These Democrats upheld the California position. Mr. Phelan, but you did not.

COUNT NUMBER NINE—You have declared, Mr. Phelan, that the levying of this toll means nothing to the consumer. A ship with a net registered capacity of $800 tons will pay a toll of $9600. Should the ship be half filled, which frequently occurs, the rate on every ton carried would be doubled. Will you explain how this amount will not be added to the freight rate and come out of the shipper and consumer and benefit the railroads?

COUNT NUMBER TEN—Great Britain questions our right to even pay the toll on our own ships by rebate through the canal, and by acquiescing in their demands we have foreclosed that right. Japan is already preparing to pay the toll on one of its steamship lines. Do you favor this discrimination and deny to the United States the same privilege?

COUNT NUMBER ELEVEN—Did you ever favor, Mr. Phelan, woman suffrage until it was granted in California? Do you stand by the policy of your party in Washington in opposing national woman suffrage?

COUNT NUMBER TWELVE—The women interested in this great movement, Mr. Secretary, asked for the creation of a special committee in Congress before which they might plead their cause. The Democratic majority went on record against national suffrage and refused members of Congress an opportunity to vote upon this important question. As a Californian, Mr. Phelan, in which state the women enjoy the privilege of the ballot, do you endorse this attitude on the part of your party, an attitude of hostility toward the suffrage movement?

COUNT NUMBER THIRTEEN—At the last session of Congress, when the immigration bill was pending, an amendment was offered providing for the exclusion of Asiatics, and notwithstanding the former declarations of the Democratic party in favor of exclusion, this amendment was voted down. Do you endorse this attitude on the part of your party upon a question so vital to California?

COUNT NUMBER FOURTEEN—Mr. Secretary, your party has passed a tariff bill that has practically hit every industry in the state of California. The farmer, the fruit grower, the dairyman; in fact, all the big producers in this state have been hit hard. Will Mr. Phelan stand by these policies of the administration and will he, if elected, vote for a still lower tariff?

COUNT NUMBER FIFTEEN—Mr. Phelan, do you still stand for the surrender of our Panama canal rights to England? Are you still against woman's suffrage?

Fifty More Men Saved From Rehilla Wreck

WHITBY, England, Oct. 31, 1:50 p. m.—Fifty more men were saved today from the wreck of the British hospital ship Rehilla, which ran on the rocks off the Yorkshire coast, near here early yesterday.

Bearing physicians, nurses and hospital supplies, the Rehilla was on her way to a Belgian or a French port to succor the wounded when she was driven ashore. It is understood that all the women on board were saved.

The total number on board the ill-fated ship is not definitely known, but some estimates place it at 200. There are said to be still about sixty persons on the vessel.

Several men this morning responded to the call to take the risk of swimming, a few of them reached land safely, but others were drowned. Bodies are washing up on the beach.

Peace in Piedmont; Adams to Have Garage

An ornamental roof on the Edison Adams garage, and a resolution by the city trustees, have restored peace in fashionable Piedmont. The garage, objected to by Nelson Howard, Adams' next door neighbor, will be built. A permit has been issued to R. A. McWilliams, the contractor. The roof was lowered and the building made fireproof and ornamental.

The work was stopped while Adams was east. Protests were filed, and the matter explained before the trustees. Today final work was started on the garage.

Says Orchestration Is of Obsolete Style

What's the use of an orchestration that won't play the latest rag music? That's the question which C. A. Rice of the Alameda Venise and Swimming Stands has put up to the Superior Court in a suit filed today against Antonio Ciccarelli, in which he seeks to rescind a contract for the purchase of a large sized music box. Plaintiff alleges that when he agreed to it with the understanding that new perforated music rolls could be readily purchased. Later he discovered it is alleged, that the music box was obsolete and now he wants his money back.

SAFETY CRAFT ON LAKE

LOS ANGELES, Oct. 31.—After riding from the business district to Verdugo avenue near the city limits, three bandits held tonight the passengers and crew of a Eagle Rock street car. Two watches and $40 were taken by the robbers who made their escape.

Seven passengers, two of them women, were on the car when one of the crew, a roper, and a dog forced everyone to put up their hands. The robbers seized their hats and shot a searchlight, so as to be able to do duty at night.

SOUTHLAND UNITED FOR KNOWLAND-FREDERICKS

Thousands Cheer Republican Standard-Bearers in Greatest Political Demonstration Ever Given in Los Angeles; Victory Certain

(By WILL D. SIMONDS)

Special to The Oakland Tribune.

LOS ANGELES, Oct. 31.—Congressman Joseph R. Knowland and Captain John D. Fredericks were given one of the greatest receptions here last night in the history of this city or state. Trinity auditorium was not large enough to hold the thousands that flocked to hear the Republican standard-bearers.

There was something doing prior to the gathering. From noon until 2 o'clock there was an auto street parade through the principal streets, cheered by tens of thousands of people. At 2 o'clock there was an allegorical representation of the streets of the national life of America, which lasted until 6 o'clock.

One of the features of the parade was a fourteen-foot elephant, representing the party emblem. Another was a representation of the great seal of the state made of living women, children and bears, the effect of which was very striking.

But of course interest centers on the rally. For nearly a week Los Angeles county has been the battlefield of the warring forces. The Democratic candidates have been here, Johnson has been circulating over the district, and last but by no means least, Captain Fredericks and Joseph R. Knowland, who came, saw and conquered.

Congressman Knowland made a splendid impression on the vast audience that greeted him and at the overflow meeting that had to be held in order to accommodate the immense throngs. He stated the issues of the campaign in a most masterly manner and as a result of this address was applauded to the echo by his delighted auditors. Cheered cheerfully over the speaker urged the need for the restoration of tariff protection and at every point he was tumultuously encored.

Inside the immense hall Captain Fredericks was leading his audience almost to the breaking point of enthusiasm in one of the most eloquent addresses of his career.

OAVATION FOR FREDERICKS.

When Captain Fredericks appeared upon the stage he was given one of the most remarkable receptions ever accorded a candidate in this city. The thousands of men and women present rose to their feet as one and waved flags and cheered and cheered until they were tired of standing longer.

This demonstration followed an exhibition of moving pictures illustrating Captain Fredericks's ideas on prison reform and was especially gratifying.

The meeting was remarkable in another respect—the attendance from other sections of the Southwest. Delegations were present from Ventura, Orange, Riverside, San Bernardino, Imperial and San Diego counties, and there were a number of San Franciscans in the audience. It is significant to note that not one of the delegations reported anything but the brightest of prospects for success.

John Mott, a prominent business man, presided and the visiting delegations were represented by vice-presidents. There is a feeling of victory in the air in the South and no doubt a tremendous majority for Congressman Knowland and Captain Fredericks will be rolled up south of Tehachapi.

VETERANS GREET KNOWLAND.

During the morning the candidate for governor visited several industrial plants. At the Union Metal Works he was listened to by a large audience. In the afternoon Captain Fredericks and Congressman Knowland were invited to visit the Old Soldiers' Home at Sausalito and here they were given a reception and there was a feeling of victory in the air at this place seems unbounded.

Today Captain Fredericks will make a long trip into the country, addressing the farmers of his home district, who have invited him to visit them.

In his address last night Captain Fredericks said:

"All the speeches have been made, and what I say here tonight will doubtless not change one vote. So far as I am concerned I would like to have conditions remain as they are. I am satisfied. You Republicans will be satisfied Tuesday night and you Progressives will be satisfied irrigation district on earth."

UNIVERSITY AMENDMENT GIVEN STRONG SUPPORT

Prominent Citizens Endorse Measure for the Improvement and Additional Buildings at State College

We, the undersigned citizens of Oakland, strongly endorse the University of California Bonds, Number ELEVEN on the ballot, for the November election. We have looked into the matter carefully and believe that Number ELEVEN should carry in the State by a large majority. Attention is called to the fact that our State University has grown three hundred per cent in attendance in fifteen years, while class room space there has only increased twenty per cent. Unless further buildings are supplied, students will be turned away and expansion cease. Many of the present buildings are fire traps.

The especial attention of our citizens is called to the fact that the payment of the interest and sinking fund of this bond issue will not raise the personal taxes of any individual, but that this payment is made from the State general funds which is not levied upon the individuals, but is paid by the public service corporations. Let this community give strong support to Number ELEVEN.

Steel Magnate Pays High Tribute to American Papers

BIRMINGHAM, Ala., Oct. 31.—

A tribute to the honesty and fairness of the American newspaperman was paid last night by Elbert H. Gary, chairman of the board of directors of the United States Steel Corporation, at a dinner given in his honor by the Birmingham Newspaper Club. The dinner was one of the social features in connection with the annual meeting here of the American Iron & Steel Institute, of which Gary is president. Officers and directors of the institute were among the guests.

Speaking of relations between employer and employee, Gary said the time has come when the employer should recognize that "we are our brothers' keeper."

The Birmingham Country Club ended the social program of the steel men's meeting here. An excursion to mines and steel plants in the Birmingham district today will be the closing feature of the institute.

Other measures voted for by the convention include the breaking up of the large landed estates of all holders by a system of expropriation; one-third of these holdings to go to the people. Two-thirds of the great properties to be confiscated by the government will be devoted to the care of the widows and orphans of those who fell in the revolution.

These Candidates Should Be Elected.

Running for various county offices in Alameda county are many good men who are deserving of the united support of the electors. They are qualified, honest, faithful and efficient public servants, who have demonstrated their ability in most instances.

Prominent among the number is George W. Frick, the very able superintendent of county schools, who would have been elected by the primary but for the fact that he was opposed by four persons, only one of whom qualified and that only by a vote equal approximately to one third the number cast for Mr. Frick. Mr. Frick has served the people of this county in the position he holds and to which he again aspires. He has a long and creditable record as an educator, is practical in methods and has caused the adoption of many features in the schools here that tend to better fit the young for the battle of life.

George E. Gross, at present city auditor of Oakland, is a nominee for county clerk. Mr. Gross has distinguished himself in the position he now holds by signal ability displayed. He has simplified business methods, brought new policies into force and effect, kept the expenses of the place to a minimum and in every way has shown his fitness. His election to the office of county clerk means that he will take there that knowledge he possesses with respect to conducting office efficiently and at the same time in an economical way. Sentiment in favor of Mr. Gross is very strong and he will no doubt be elected, but it is due to a man with such a clean record as is his, that the voters show their appreciation of services by an emphatic declaration.

Bankers and business men are a unit in declaring that M. J. Kelly is the best county treasurer Alameda county has ever had. Hundreds of men in financial and commercial life have voluntarily pledged their support to this faithful official who has been nominated to succeed himself. All classes of citizens have joined in the demand. Labor and capital alike have declared he should be selected because of his standing qualifications, his inflexible honesty and his efficient conduct of his office. Under his administration, Alameda county has never lost a cent, and his work has been so thorough that financial experts and auditing committees of grand juries have united to praise him for the clean, concise methods he has inaugurated. The voters of this county owe it to themselves to see that Mr. Kelly is elected by a large majority.

E. F. Garrison, candidate for auditor, is a thorough man with a training and experience that makes him a valuable man for the people. The position of auditor is equal to that of treasurer. It is under his direction that expenditures are made and in his position he is not only a ministerial official, bound to carry out orders given as to disbursements, but a judicial one, held responsible for illegal payments. He must be accurate to a cent, careful to a degree and must have marked qualities in order to perform the work. Mr. Garrison possesses all these. His previous experiences have enabled him to become master of every detail and because he is honest and capable he should be elected to succeed himself in an office in which he has made good and maintained in such a manner as to entitle him to the condemnation of experts all over the State.

The office of assessor is one that requires a peculiar training. To fill it successfully the incumbent must have a knowledge of property values practically limitless. He must know every detail of the real estate market, understand whether land and improvements, both urban and suburban, is increasing or decreasing in value and must be exact and impartial in all transactions. Furthermore he must be a good judge of men, for in the selection of deputies there is required a fund of information. It isn't every man who can qualify as a deputy assessor; these subordinate officials must be capable to a degree. Like their chief they must be well informed and selected because of their fitness and ability. Charles F. Horner, who has served Alameda county so well in this position, is a candidate to succeed himself. Mr. Horner is running on the record of efficiency he has made during the time he has filled this place, during which there has never been a question as to his methods and the results he has attained. Mr. Horner is no faddist, but a plain business man who has brought to the office efficiency and thoroughness, fairness and just dealing, equity in application and economy in carrying out the work. He should be re-elected by a distinct and emphatic majority over his opponent.

Dr. Charles L. Tisdale, coroner, is a candidate for re-election. Dr. Tisdale is a physician of standing and eminence and well qualified both by education and experience. The judgment of the best governed communities is that coroners should be physicians. His opponent is not a physician. Dr. Tisdale is a man of character, has ability and fitness and during his incumbency has conducted the affairs of the office with dignity and to the best interests of the citizens. This office is an important one. It is second to none. There are grave responsibilities connected with it. During the incumbency of Dr. Tisdale all these have been ably carried out and on his record there is nothing to his discredit. Dr. Tisdale should be re-elected.

No two men running for office are entitled to a greater measure of support than Police Judges George Samuels and Mortimer F. Smith, who have filled the positions so long and so acceptably. As a result of their administration of affairs, Oakland occupies a splendid position with respect to petty criminals and others, being singularly free from the elements that make for disorder. These two men deserve the votes of every elector in Oakland. There is no doubt whatever of their election, but the vote should be so large in its character as to set the seal of emphatic approval upon their course of conduct.

Turkey may be correct in entering the war, but somehow or other we cannot refrain from thinking that there will come a time when her liver wing will be turned and that England and Russia will pick the bones.

THE TRIBUNE has from time to time editorially set forth the superior claims and qualifications of Mr. Stratton for Justice of the Appellate Court. This journal would now add the above as its final word on behalf of the man from our own county, and urge with all the vigor at its command the assured election of Mr. Stratton.

Qualifications.—The late Chief Justice William H. Beatty, knowing equally well both of the aspirants, made, just before his death, a solemn oath in writing, now on file with the Secretary of State, declaring that Mr. Stratton is my choice and that I will support no other candidate for this office.

Unfair Tactics Employed.

Paid advertising matter on behalf of the movement to confiscate the wine industry of California, the brewing interests and their allied industries are being printed in papers in the interior. One of these large displays is headed: "Pauper Labor Wanted. Workmen of California, How Does This Strike You?" Then follows a statement by H. F. Stoll, President of the California Wine Grape Growers' Association, in the Commission of Horticulture Bulletin, published under authority of the State in 1913 in which Mr. Stoll says:

One of the most serious difficulties which we must overcome, if we hope to compete successfully with France, Italy, Spain and Portugal in the wine market of the world is the labor problem. This fall pickers were at a premium in the vineyards and as a result prohibitive prices had to be paid to Japs, Hindus and other available help. But with the opening of the Panama Canal it is expected that the influx of immigration from Southern Europe will help adjust the vexing problem."

To which is added: "Mr. Laboring Man, for your own protection vote California Dry."

This argument is made for the purpose of influencing the unthinking. In the first place no effort is proposed to bring "pauper labor" here from Europe, and these advocates of a "dry" cause know, or should know, that under the immigration laws of the United States "pauper labor" cannot be brought in from any country.

Now is there any danger of injuring the laboring man as intimated. As a matter of fact the statement by Mr. Stoll quoted in the advertisement and here shows that labor was so scarce coolies had to be engaged.

As to immigration from Southern Europe, that is not to be deplored, because the character of the men and women from those countries is of a kind calculated to build up a commonwealth. They are the peasants who look first, to get hold of a piece of land and second, to improve it and make it productive. Their thrift has been shown on a thousand hillsides in California where they have cleared the land and made of formerly useless areas, producing districts. The earlier settlers in this State selected the choice lands in the valleys, but those who are now coming are making the hill and mountain sides yield good crops.

There has been a movement in favor of inducing immigration from the Scandinavian countries, just now we are trying to induce the thrifty Belgians who have suffered from the war to come here, why not the wine growing, grape growing, sturdy toiler from Southern Europe? Or is it better to let the Hindus and Japanese work as they did in 1913?

It looks as if this argument on the part of the "dry" element is boomerangish in its effect.

Vote "No" on Amendment No. 2.

Wonder if there is any special significance attaching to the fact that President Wilson issued his Thanksgiving proclamation about the time Congress adjourned?

Angellotti Should Be Elected.

Because of the splendid record he has made while serving as an associate justice of the State Supreme Court; because of the ability he possesses; because of his profound knowledge of the law and his well balanced mind, Frank M. Angellotti, at present Associate Justice of the highest court in California, should be elected Chief Justice.

The late Chief Justice Beatty was a man of superior judicial ability and temperament, a hard worker and a faithful servant of the people of the State. He was an honor to the bench and so regarded not only at home, but all over the Union. Lawyers in every commonwealth from Maine to the coast looked upon him as a man of commanding attainments. But while Justice Beatty was so looked upon, and rightly so, he was in no way the superior of Justice Angellotti, who seeks to succeed him.

Justice Angellotti should be elected, he will be elected. Not because he comes from any particular section of the State—for that factor should not be a dominating one in choosing judicial officials—but because in every essential he is pre-eminent. He has been a credit to the supreme court during his service therein, he will be a still greater credit as its head.

California should select Frank M. Angellotti Chief Justice by one of the largest majorities ever given a judicial candidate.

Woman's Book Big Success

Mrs. Aiken, as Novelist, Tells a Tale of Love and Peril.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 31.—Another San Francisco society woman has taken her place among American novelists and her book is to be put on sale today.

The novel is called "The River," and the writer is Mrs. Ednah Aiken, who was the dashing Ednah Robinson, niece of Mrs. Monroe Salisbury and of Mrs. John R. Jarboe, a recognized favorite of the drawing rooms of a few years ago.

The setting of "The River" is in Imperial county, and its story of love and adventure is intertwined with the heroic fight involving the United States government, the Mexican officials, the California Development Company and the Southern Pacific.

Many of the characters are drawn from well-known figures along the border, and its local color is true to life, for Mrs. Aiken went right into the desert when getting her material together, lived in tents, fraternized with the engineers, soldiers, officials, vaqueros and rancheros and became a part of her subject.

The story itself has drama and thrill and pathos, and it will have a peculiar local interest because of the social prominence of the writer, who is the widow of the late Charles Sedgwick Aiken, editor of "Sunset" and prominent Bohemian Club member. The book is dedicated to him.

Mrs. Aiken was at work on the book in Germany when the war drove her out, and she is now at home in Los Angeles, where just now she is entertaining her friend, Marcella Craft, the famous grand opera singer.

The novel is from the Bobbs-Merrill

Press and is illustrated in colors by Sidney H. Riesenbeck.

WOMEN ON VENICE OF NEW GRAND JURY

REDWOOD CITY, Oct. 31.—The names of eleven women appear on the San Mateo County grand jury venire. They are: Madeline Katz, Wright; William McBain, Charlotte Dignies, Marion Shields, Eleanor McCullough; Margaret A. Kras, Natalie L. Merle, Carrie Jury, Nellie O'Keefe, Lottie Kelsee and Sarah Merrill. The last named is the wife of Mayor Merrill of Redwood City.

The new grand jury will be empaneled by Judge Buck next month. Among the matters into which the body will inquire are the gambling situation, incendiary fires and a probable further inquiry into the county auditor's office.

ELOPERS ARE DIVORCED: WIFE GETS SETTLEMENT

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 31.—Pearl Embree, who eloped to Independence, Inyo county, on March 16, with Milton J. Levy, of the banking house of H. Levi & Co., was granted an interlocutory decree of divorce by Superior Judge Van Nostrand on the ground of extreme cruelty. The suits for maintenance and for $10,000 damages against Mrs. Fannie Levi, mother, and Herman Levi, uncle, of the young man, were dismissed by consent and the divorce suit was uncontested. It was reported that $10,000 was settled on the young woman.

MISSING GIRLS FOUND: HAD TRAVELED SOUTH

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 31.—Anxiety as to the fate of 16-year-old Helen Gordon, 1007 Golden Gate avenue, and her slightly older chum, Tillie Grosshoff, 2655 Market street, both of whom disappeared last Monday, was relieved last night when the girls were found in Los Angeles by J. H. Weaver of the Glendale secret service bureau. The Gordon girl, who is a niece of Frank V. Gordon, wealthy oil man at 518 Story building, Los Angeles, will be brought back here at once.

Both girls, according to the police, were much of their time at one of the beach houses, where Miss Grosshoff was known as Tillie Ward. They vanished last Monday. Miss Gordon left a note stating that she would be Mrs. G. A. Hanmer by 2 o'clock and would be on her way to Bakersfield, not to return until she was of age.

The Grosshoff girl, an orphan, stated that she intended to commit suicide. She was known to be despondent over a love affair.

Detector Weaver learned that they had left Mendocino on the steamer Tule and finally traced the girls to a Los Angeles hotel. They at first denied their identity, but finally admitted it, and were taken to the home of Gordon. Helen's uncle, Helen said they wanted to see him and that she was tired of being hampered by paternal interference. She said they intended to seek work as telephone girls in Los Angeles. The marriage, she said, was a myth. They had purchased a stock of clothes in advance in preparation for their flight.

Gordon, the uncle, instituted the private search for the girls, having made a trip here earlier in the week for that purpose.

Efforts to discover the connection of G. A. Hanmer with the girls are being made, and there may be further developments when she arrives here.

LAST SHIP OF SEASON LEAVES NORTHERN PORT

NOME, Alaska, Oct. 31.—The steamship Victoria, the last boat of the season, departed for Seattle last night with 300 passengers, and transportation connection with the remainder of the world is discontinued until next June, when the boats will come up from the south, fighting the ice of Behring sea. During the winter dog teams will carry letter mail between Prince William sound and Nome.

Twenty-six hundred people will pass the winter here, this being practically the same number that remained through last winter.

The gold output of Seward peninsula during the season just ended was $3,000,000, or $500,000 larger than during the season of 1913.

KIDNAPED GIRL TO WED WITH PARENTS' CONSENT

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 31.—Wednesday bells are to ring on Sunday for Charles Joseph Bobelle and Miss Sadie Broadhurst, the girl he kidnapped at the point of a pistol August 21 in this city, and bore away in a high-power motor car.

A marriage license was obtained by the youthful pair at San Jose yesterday, consent of the parents having been secured, and the ceremony will be performed tomorrow by the Rev. Dr. Claude Kelly in the Baptist church. The bride-to-be is sixteen years of age, the bridegroom is nineteen.

VOTE AS CITIZENS, IS PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

NEW YORK, Oct. 31.—Two members of President Wilson's Cabinet were speakers at political rallies here last night. Secretary L. M. Garrison and William McAdoo addressed large meetings, advocating the election of Governor Glynn and other Democratic nominees. Secretary McAdoo read the following platform from J. F. Tamuly, secretary to the President.

"The President has requested me to authorize you to use the following in your speech tonight in the Democratic of New York. Within the last twenty-four hours I asked the President of the United States if there was any message he WHAT Every Woman Knows" was the theme of Barrie's most successful play. And "what every woman knows" means charm. That was what poor Maggie in the play wanted most of all—"charm." At last it is being recognized that this is a characteristic of the American woman—this elusive something which is called "charm."

The American woman is well used to hearing herself ridiculed—to seeing herself misrepresented by foreign nations. At last good measurements have come her way and a clever Englishman is writing fine essays concerning her—essays that have been copied everywhere in America. And the clever writer is well worth quoting:

"I am pleasantly conscious that the American woman has the air of being very well dressed."

"I am not attempting to make a comparison between the clothes of very wealthy women of the leisured classes in America and those of women similarly placed in other countries. Aristocracies and plutocracies are cosmopolitan. National characteristics are to a considerable extent smoothed off them. The women of these classes dress almost equally well everywhere. The possibility of comparison exists only when one considers the comparatively poor women of the middle and lower middle classes. It is these who, in America, have the instinct for dressing well unusually highly developed. Some women have this instinct. Others have not. It seems to be distributed geographically. There are cities—no bribe would induce me to name one of them—where the women are usually badly dressed. You walk up and down the chief thoroughfares. You enter the most fashionable restaurants and are oppressed by a sense of prevailing dowdiness. It is not a question of money. The gowns which you see, the coat, the hats, have obviously cost great sums. For half the expenditure women in other places look well dressed. It is not a matter of the skill of dressmakers and milliners. It is an extra sense, as incommunicable as an ear for music. A woman either has it or has not. The American woman has it."

"The American woman's power of dressing herself is wonderful."

"But the best clothes in the world are no help when it comes to conversation, unless, indeed, one is able to discuss them in detail, and I am not. I have met exquisitely dressed women who were very difficult to talk to. The American woman is not one of these. Besides being well dressed she is a delightful talker on all subjects. She may or may not be profound. I am not profound myself, so I have no way of judging about that. But profoundness is not wanted in conversation. Its proper place is in scientific books. In conversation it is merely a nuisance, and the American woman, when she is profound, has more sense than to show it. She talks well because she is not in the least shy or self-conscious. Even young American girls are not shy. Brought into sudden contact with a middle-aged man, they treat him as an equal, with a frank sense of comradeship. They have, apparently, no awe of advanced or advancing years."

"It is her power of making herself agreeable which is the greatest charm of the American woman, a greater charm than her ability in dressing. I am a man very little practiced in the art of conversation. A dinner party—a party of any kind, but particularly a dinner party—is a thing from which I shrink. I am always very sorry for the two women who are placed beside me. I know that they will have to make great exertions to keep up a conversation with me. I watch them suffering and am myself a prey to excruciating pangs of self-reproach. But my agony is less in America than elsewhere. The American woman must of course suffer as much as the English woman when I take her in to dinner; but she possesses in an extraordinary degree the art of not showing it. She frequently deceives me for several minutes at a time, making me think that she is actually enjoying herself. She is able to do this because she has an amazing vitality and a very acute kind of intelligence. Now, the highest compliment which a woman can pay to a man is to enjoy his company. The American woman understands this and succeeds in pretending she is doing it. She is wise, too. Recognizing that even her powers have their limits and that no woman, however,

The big bazaar for the Baby Hospital is scoring a great success and the dancers every evening are adding to the success of the entertainment. Among the well-known people who are working hard at the bazaar this week are: Mrs. Duncan McDuffie, Mrs. Edison Adams, Mrs. P. E. Bowles, Mrs. Lem Clark, Mrs. Fred Magee, Mrs. E. C. Prather, Mrs. William de Fremery, Miss Florence Selby, Mrs.

HALLOWEEN MOOD INSPIRES SOCIETY.

All the decorations for the many charity and social events this week have been unusually picturesque—for there has been the old-time traditions to carry out—Yellow, of course, is still the accepted Hallowe'en color. A bright golden yellow it should be, or even an orange.

There are special Hallowe'en crepe papers, in yellow, black, and white, showing witches and cats, ghosts, and Jack-o'-lanterns arrayed in startling and amusing manner.

In the shops this week, hostesses are buying many attractive favors.

In the shops there are many attractive little favors all made up. There are small plaster pumpkins that hold candles and that have much of the charm of real Jack-o'-lanterns. There are numerous place cards decorated with pumpkins, witches, small children in Hallowe'en garb and other appropriate symbols. There are all sorts of trick favors specially sold for this holiday, and one can have an unsuccessful Hallowe'en entertainment for lack of decorations.

Hallowe'en has done much to start the social ball rolling.

Hallowe'en, the vigil of All Saints' Day, has become largely social. In bygone days the most essential part of Hallowe'en ritual was the lighting by each household of a bonfire at Kings fall into comparative insignificance.

It is the spirit of youth that is going to lift society this coming season out of the slough of despond, with nearly a hundred debutantes impatiently waiting their turn on the social stage, and their gayeties will serve to lighten up the countenances and until the pursestrings of many melancholy relations. Not the least striking of the power of youth is its diverse forms of activity. Not less worthy of notice is the large number of young society brides.

So with the opening of the season have come many announcements of interest.

Mrs. Granville Abbott is to open her home at Piedmont for the benefit of the Ladies' Relief Association, and she will give a bridge afternoon, on next Thursday. Mrs. Abbott is one of the best known and one of the most generous hostesses at Piedmont, and her afternoon for the benefit of the Ladies' Relief will be one of the most successful of the early season.

Mrs. Abbott will have the assistance of the women who are so vitally interested in the work of the Ladies' Relief Association—which is the oldest philanthropy in our city. Among those who have the cause very much at heart are: Miss Matilda Brown, Mrs. Victor Metcalf, Mrs. William Henshaw, Mrs. Arthur Breed, Mrs. Charles Butters, Mrs. Henry Martinez, Mrs. Louis Glass, Mrs. Weston, Mrs. Willard Williamson, Mrs. Edward Lacey Brayton, Mrs. Harrison Clay.

Many tables have already been engaged, and one hears that Mrs. Abbott's beautiful home in Piedmont will be taxed to its utmost capacity. Another large affair to be given for the Ladies' Relief Association, will be that planned by Mrs. Arthur Breed. She will entertain in her home at Piedmont, giving a musical for the benefit of the Ladies' Relief Association.

MRS. FREDERICKS IS MOTIF OF LUNCHEON.

Two luncheons of the week were specially noteworthy—the hostesses being Mrs. Helen K. Williams of San president of the Women's Republican club. There was much enthusiasm for Captain Fredericks, and for the Republican party, and the informal discussion which followed, showed a keen appreciation of the political issues of the day and confidence in the success of the Republican campaign, which would have been most encouraging to the men of the State if they could have heard it.

The hostess herself proposed it. "Mrs. N. E. Davidson—the only woman in the state ticket." And the honor of replying to the toast fell to Miss Mollie E. Connors of our city. The speaker outlined the successful work of Mrs. Davidson, with her splendid record of twelve years as county superintendent of Kings county, and she told of her charming personality, her sweet sympathy, her rare culture, her kindness to women and children, and of her rare executive ability, which brought all these womanly characteristics as factors to personal success, as unusual as it is wonderful.

News of the campaign for Mrs. Davidson was given by the speaker, who reported glowing accounts from the North; a three-to-one vote through Kings county and the San Joaquin; solid help from the South, and Alameda county and San Francisco, joining hands in a big effort to line up a record vote.

There was a great demonstration for Mrs. Davidson, and if men could have been there to have added their fine voices to the continued hand-clapping—there would have been "three cheers"—and the proverbial "tiger."

Mrs. I. Lowenberg, who is one of the most cultured and talented women across the bay, gave a delightful address, and other prominent speakers at the luncheon were Mrs. Lovell White, Miss Virginia Deal, Mrs. James Coleman, and Mrs. William Little, president of the Poppy Club.

Later in the afternoon at four, Mrs. Williams gave a tea at the St. Francis for Mrs. John D. Fredericks, and among the guests of the afternoon were members from many of the clubs across the bay—among them vital and intelligent, can go on distinguishing her weariness for very long, she makes her dinners and luncheons as short as she can, shorter than similar functions are in England. She does not attempt anything in the way of a long-distance contest with the heavy stupidity of an ordinary man. Here is the triumph of the sprinter. For a short time she flashes, sympathizes, subtly flatters, talks with amazing brilliancy, charms. Then she escapes. What happens to her next I can only guess, but I imagine that she must be very much exhausted."

BIG BAZAAR HELD FOR BABY HOSPITAL

Even though "politics" is absorbing the attention of the general public, the social round goes merrily on. The big bazaar for the Baby Hospital is scoring a great success and the bazaar, among them: Miss Madeline Chambers, Miss Elva Ghirardelli, Miss Anna Barbour, Miss Suzette Greenwood, Miss Margaret Moseley, Miss Anita Crollin, Miss Bina Moseley, Miss Dorothy Taylor, Miss Dorothy Taft, Miss Nellie Adams, Miss Grace Layman, Miss Edith Goodfellow, Miss Von Adelung, Miss Von Loben Sels, Miss Carol Day, Miss Lois Crosby, Misses Sutton, Miss Marian Kerzan, Miss Mary Adams, Miss Mae Duval, Miss Edith Armes, Miss Elizabeth Barnard.

The booths were most attractive. The basket booth was specially effective, and the "traveling booth" took the form of a trunk in which the young girls stood.

At the dancing one noticed many attractive gowns. Mrs. Wickham Havens in pale blue was very handsome indeed, and Miss Kate Bennett and Miss Clarisse Lohse were both in blue. Honors were carried off by Miss Alice Shinn, who was very stately in white, with an accordion pleated skirt, and Mrs. Duncan Mcduval was also very stunning, and nightfall which pointed to the very ancient practice of kindling sacred fires at certain seasons of the year. The season then was regarded as unusually propitious for the activity of elves, witches, and the like.

Nowadays, especially at the beginning of the season, the celebration marks the kindling of social fires and the activity of pretty society girls, who resort to highly diverting methods of divination regarding their future earthly state.

The sentimental observances of the vigil and the opportunity afforded for picturesque and gruesome decorations have served to bring the celebration into high favor with society. The candy shop windows have been filled for days with black witches and grinning pumpkin faces and there is hardly a girl in the social ranks who will not join in a jolly gathering tonight and at the stroke of midnight gaze into a mirror in the pale candle light in search of a fleeting glimpse of her Prince Charming, beside which the issue of battles and the fate of Francisco, and Mrs. Henry Glidé of Sacramento. Mrs. Williams entered in honor of Mrs. John Fredericks, wife of the Republican nominee for governor. Twenty of the most prominent women around the bay were Mrs. Williams' guests, and her luncheon was one of the most brilliant affairs given in many weeks, in the social centers around the bay.

It was given in the blue room of the St. Francis, and the table was a charming study in decoration—the centerpiece being of dark red late daffodils, most effective against the blue tones of the room.

Mrs. Williams gave the first toast of the afternoon, "Captain John D. Fredericks," the reply to which was given in a specially well-chosen speech by Mrs. Florenz Richmond, representatives from the Laurel Hall, Poppy, and other clubs.

OAKLAND HOSTESS FROM SACRAMENTO.

Mrs. Henry Glidé was the hostess at a very elaborate luncheon given at the Oakland on Thursday. Mrs. Glidé was formerly Miss Sadie Sinclair. She is the bride of Henry Glidé, the well-known millionaire of Sacramento.

Mrs. Glidé made her guest of honor, her aunt, Mrs. Clement C. Clay, who has just returned from a trip abroad, extending over several months. As Miss Sadie Sinclair, Mrs. Glidé was one of the best loved girls in the social set of Oakland, and a very popular girl at the Fortnightly dances. Among her relatives here are Mrs. Hetty Stephenson, Mrs. R.

Miss Lovell made her guest of honor, pretty Phyllis Capwell, whose wedding to Lieutenant Fred Seydel, U. S. A., will take place November 18. Miss Lovell is to be one of the attendants, and the invitations for the tea included for the most part the young matrons and the young girls who were friends of the hostess.

The home was most attractive, with brides' roses in one of the rooms and in the drawing room was an elaborate arrangement of chrysanthemums which made a charming background for the young brides, and her very pretty guest of honor.

In the receiving party were Mrs. Charles Lovell, Mrs. William Fillmore (Pearl Cawston), Mrs. Joseph F. Hunt (Grace Ewing), Mrs. Dean Allen (Helen Lowden) and the Misses Lillie Lovell, Pauline Adams, Helen Downey, Marguerite Black, Marian Rodolph, Dorothy Capwell, Pauline Painter, Helen Coogan and Margarette Morbie.

BLAKE SEMINARY REUNION.

The former pupils of Blake Seminary, the fashionable school of Oakland a generation ago, held their eleventh reunion at a luncheon in Mosswood park on Thursday. Mrs. Ross Hillebrand Hoffman is president of the alumnae, and Mrs. Nelia Reed Mayon is secretary.

Among the numbers are a number of prominent matrons of Oakland, some of whom include Mrs. Matilda Dugger Brown, Mrs. Anna Deiger Moller, Mrs. Augusta Lovell Garthwaite, Mrs. Francesca Foun-

There will be a mix-up of the younger married set and the intimate friends of Mrs. Coogan and her hostess, and after several games of bridge there will be an informal dance.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Wetmore will furnish music. All of the Haloween decorations will be in evidence with jack-o'-lanterns and red apples. Mrs. Weinmann will be assisted by one or two friends.

IN ROSS VALLEY.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Bothin have returned from Santa Barbara, where they have been supervising details of the construction of their new home in Montecito and are again at their Ross Valley place. Miss Genevieve Bothin is at present their guest for a few days. She is one of the popular debutantes of the season across the bay, and on Monday night will be the honor of a luncheon to be given by Miss Florence Bandmann at her home in Van Ness avenue.

TO VISIT MAUVAIL'S HOME.

Friends of Mr. and Mrs. Roscoe Glover Downs (Leurette Mauvail) will be delighted to know that they are planning a visit to Mrs. Downs' mother, Mrs. Zeno Mauvail, soon after the holidays. They have been living in Los Angeles since their marriage in spring and have an attractive home there.

At their new home Mrs. Dowm has one of the most popular belles of society, and she will be entertained a great deal on her return to Oakland. Mrs. Dowm, Sr., has been visiting her son and daughter-in-law in the south.

ARRIVES FROM ITALY.

Harold Bruntisch, brother of Mrs. Dodge, arrived a few days ago from Italy and is at the home of his relatives in Alameda. He was in Germany with his sister, Miss Marguerite Bruntisch, early in the summer and went to Italy to call for America. Miss Bruntisch has decided to remain in Germany. She is in unusually robust shape and is member of the Broadway Opera company of Berlin. At present she is happily established in Carlisle, where there are none of the disturbances of war.

VISITED EUREKA.

Mr. and Mrs. Warren Palmer returned a few days ago from a visit to Eureka, where they spent several weeks during a number of motor trips through the picturesque country and being present at the ceremony of driving the last spikes in the railroad that is to connect Eureka and the south.

FOR MISS CHURCH.

Mrs. Esther Church was guest of honor at a dance given by her aunt, Mrs. Rod Church, last evening at the Little Church residence in Eureka street. About sixty of the younger set were present and many were given the first opportunity of greeting Miss Church, who left for a visit to Seattle soon after her arrival from Europe and returned only a few days ago.

There were elaborate decorations with flowers and the usual Haloween lanterns and emblems. The horsecar was assisted in running by her daughter, Miss Oliver Fletch and Mrs. Lin Church.

LUNCHEON AT THE OAKLAND.

Mrs. Jules Cohn and Mrs. S. Cohn were hostesses at a large luncheon at the Oakland yesterday evening, which numbered fifty guests. Following luncheon in the Blue room, there were several hours of bridge. The table was decorated with baby roses and violets in baskets, and there were Haloween favors and Haloween decorations about the room. The bridge sets were boxes of correspondents cards.

FOR YOUNGER SET.

One of the jolly Haloween dances of this evening will be given by Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Ritten in honor of their daughter, Miss Frances Ritten. The guests will be twenty-four of the "school girls" and they will be entertained with Haloween games and by a formal entertainment who will read palms and predict futures for the young people. The Rittens have recently returned to their home in El Camino Real after an absence of two years in Southern California, and the dance will be the first affair to be given since the house had been re-opened.

"SPOOKY" DANCE.

A "Spook Dance" or old-fashioned Holloween party will be held this evening at the Mt. Diablo Park club, where guests are to dance the Virginia reel and the old dances with the new steps for those who can't resist them. The club is a large, airy room, decorated with pumpkins and gourds, and famous figures will cover the lights. The clubhouse is built in the old English style and will be open to all.

The nickel dance this evening will be attended by belles and beau of the smart set, and promises to be unusually jolly. One of the interesting features of the fair is the playing of the Neapolitan Mandolin and Guitar club this afternoon, under the direction of Miss Theresa and Miss Lily Sherwood. Those who played were: Miss Irene Dearborn, Miss Florence, Miss Edith V. Vining, Miss Helen Mantel, Miss Edith Snow-Kynne, Miss Grace Gier, Miss Emma Boyen, Miss Lena Harry, Miss Clara Osborn, Miss Edith Larpenteur, Miss Kate Symmes and Miss Adela Rillet.

MOTHER PLEADS FOR YOUTH BEFORE JUDGE

"Those who have much are often greedy, but those who have little always share."

"It is just another instance of the enormous sacrifices of the poor," said Judge Wells at the juvenile court this morning after hearing the story of a colored woman whose son, a little boy of 12, was in trouble for not going to school.

"He's a good boy," she said, "and don't give me no trouble, and he's the only help I have. No, he ain't got no father; he's dead about five years."

"And what do you do for a living?" asked the judge.

"Oh, I take in washing; get about twenty a month the way. And then my brother-in-law helps me some. He's a cook on a train and makes it a month. But it's sort of hard, cause he has a wife and four children of his own."

But it isn't such an unusual situation, though the probation office received the following missive from the charity officials of New Orleans, where they lived some years ago.

"He is a bad boy. Take no chances with him."

And so the "bad one" sat hunched up, close to his mother, with a stray tear now and then running down his little brown face.

COLLEGE AVENUE FOLK IN CARNIVAL TONIGHT.

Everything is in readiness for the big street carnival to be held tonight by the citizens of College Avenue, San Pablo, in honor of the first lighting of the new electricians. The affair will be in the nature of a Mardi Gras, and all merrymakers are requested to wear masks and dominoes, to equip themselves with horns or other noise-making contrivances and to join in the double Haloween celebration.

Music will be furnished by the Fifth Regiment Band, and dancing will be provided in the school auditorium.

The program of the evening is arranged as follows: Children's flag chorus at 7:30 o'clock, under the marshalling of Principal Julius A. Verxon. The big street parade, for which prizes for the best decorated machine floats and other competitive entries will start at 9 o'clock, headed by the city officials, with C. B. Strong as marshal. The line of march for both parades will be on College Avenue, from Taft avenue to Sixty-third street, commencing and terminating at the Claremont school, where appropriate literary exercises will be held. COMPANION OF POET IS DEAD; WAS PIONEER

Winfred Scott Jameson, one-time companion in arms of Joaquin Miller, the "Poet of the Sierras," died in Port Gamble, Wash., where he had resided for the past forty years, late Thursday night. He was a veteran of several Indian engagements and the California gold rush of '49, before among the first to make the journey from the East via the isthmus of Panama. He will be buried tomorrow in Port Gamble.

The aged lumber man, 84 years old when he died, was born in Seabrook, Maine, in 1838. He moved northward from California, settling near Port Gamble, but one year later was again attracted by the gold fever and joined the rush to the Fraser river and Cariboo country in British Columbia. He was from the gold fields in August 1852, Jameson settled in Port Gamble, where he lived until his death Thursday.

REHEARING OF RATE CASE ASKED

Southern Pacific Company
Renews Fight for Higher
Interurban Fare.

BERKELEY, Oct. 31.—The Southern Pacific company has applied to the state railroad commission for a rehearing of its plea for permission to raise its rates on this side of the bay. Notification of the application was received this morning by City Attorney Frank V. Cornish of this city. It is taken by him to denote the company's intention to follow another reversal with appeal to the supreme court.

The case was recently laid before the commission data to show that it ought to be permitted to increase its rates throughout this side of the bay. It demanded to charge more for urban fares in Oakland than the five cents now fixed, and more than the ten cents interurban rate between San Francisco and points in the Oakland annexed district. It proposed also to increase the commutation rate to certain outlying points in Berkeley.

The case was heard by the commissioners and decided against the company. The commission based its decision upon the premise that the company, in arriving at the figures upon which rates were to be based, did not consider the suburban income, etc., from other sources of revenue, but must consider all such incomes as a unit.

The company, in its request for rehearing, characterizes this decision as unlawful and confiscatory and not sustained by the evidence. It points out that the profits which the commission took to justify a retention of present rates were those from former surpluses and not from the present income of the east bay lines. It denies the legality of the commission's considering all revenues as a unit in fixing the local rate, and declares that these should be adjudged only on the basis of local traffic.

It is expected the cities involved will be notified shortly of the date upon which the commission will consider the request for a rehearing.

The request is made in the Southern Pacific company's name by E. N. Hamlin, W. B. Booth and C. W. Durst, and dated October 29.

It was a simple ceremony, witnessed only by Hazel Lee and her mother, Mrs. Hazel Lee, who died recently, owing to the departure of the elder Miss Lee for the east. Judge James G. Daniels performed the ceremony for the young girls, who left for their honeymoon trip. They will reside in Oakland, where they have taken an apartment, the bridegroom being a member of the staff of the Parsons' hotel. The parents of the bridegroom, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Bissell are prominent and his friends were aware of the approaching wed-

FARMER'S WIFE TOO ILL TO WORK

A Weak, Nervous Sufferer Restored to Health by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Kasota, Minn.—"I am glad to say that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has done more for me than anything else, and I had the best physician here. I was so weak and nervous that I could not do my work and suffered with pains low down in my right side for a year or more. I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and now I feel like a different person. I believe there is nothing like Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound for weak women and young girls, and I would be glad if I could influence anyone to try the medicine, for I know it will do all and much more than it is claimed to do."—Mrs. Clara Frasier, R. F. D. No. 1, Maplewood Farm, Kasota, Minn.

Women who suffer from those distressing ills peculiar to their sex should be convinced of the ability of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound to restore their health by the many genuine and truthful testimonials we are constantly publishing in the newspapers.

If you have the slightest doubt that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound will help you, write to Lydia E. Pinkham, Medicine Co. (confidential) Lynn, Mass., for advice. Your letter will be opened, read and answered by a woman, and kept in strict confidence.

Are Your Ideals of the Highest Type?

Among the thousands and thousands of persons who will read this article, hundreds of different occupations are represented.

Your business may be bricks or books, cobbles or collaterals, pork or pictures, farming or finance, machinery or markets, housekeeping or hod-carrying, acting or automobiles.

Some of us do business with all the world; most of us touch only a few persons in our employ.

But the clergyman has business with everybody. His stock in trade is ideals.

Week by week he has to devote himself to thinking upon high themes, so that he may help others to think.

The work of the minister is to relate everybody's every-day life to the concerns of character and of eternity.

That is how the preacher's work touches your work, just as the architect's work affects that of the builder.

Whatever a man's employment, whatever his lot, he is bound to think about those things which have to do with his character, with his conduct and with his relation to God.

In a word, his ideals. And the keeping alive and the uplift of ideals is the preacher's business.

Whatever else he does, a man has got to think. A person without a perception of great ideals would soon sink to the jungle level. A purely material civilization is unworkable.

We are saved by our dreamers, our idealists, our thinkers.

Take God out of human thinking and you eliminate the greatest incentive to noble living and the greatest safeguard of society.

As ideals of patriotism are the life of the state, so ideals of character are the life of the individual.

These ideals are the concern of religion. Week by week, in remote country cross-road churches, and in metropolitan pulpits, the church is teaching men, women and children the great truths which are the life-sap of the tree of Christian civilization.

Today we advertise the mission of the church in conserving noble ideals and in stimulating thought upon themes of loftiest import.

The great duties and the master passions—Love, Honor, Patriotism, Brotherhood, Justice—are kindled at the altars of the House of God.

The minister is a leader of thought upon the most important subjects.

In his proclamation of the word of truth there is more of social restraint than in a police force.

This is a solid reason why we should go to church, and a reason why our children should be sent to Sunday school.

The preacher sets our thought currents to moving in a diviner direction.

As "Thus saith the Lord" toughens the fiber of our characters. His showing of the Word which is a "lamp unto my feet and light unto my path," clears up many of life's perplexities.

Whatever else may be your business, it is also your business to go to church and think the great thoughts.

President Lincoln Said:

"Prohibition will work great injury to the cause of temperance. It is a species of intemperance within itself for it goes beyond the bounds of reason, in that it attempts to control a man's appetite by legislation and in making crimes out of things that are not crimes. A Prohibition law strikes a blow at the very principles upon which our government is founded. I have always been found laboring to protect the weaker from the stronger and I never can give consent to such a law as you propose to enact. Until my tongue shall be silenced I shall continue to fight for the rights of men."

KNOWLAND IS ENDORSED BY OAKLAND UNION MEN

Representatives of Many Locals Commend the Record of Congressman on Labor Issues

From Tri-City Labor Review, Oct. 30—
We, the undersigned members of various labor unions, believing that it will be for the best interests of organized labor to send Joseph R. Knowland to the United States Senate, hereby pledge ourselves to both vote and work for the election of a man who states that the protection of the workingman is organization and who further states that "if my efforts have not always been successful, or if at times my actions have been subject to criticism, credit it to my ignorance rather than design."

Mr. Knowland has been endorsed by the Machinists, Teamsters, Engineers, Bill Posters and Billers and other unions, and we feel that if elected Mr. Knowland, who has never by word of mouth or knowingly by action taken any stand against organized labor, will endeavor to give intelligent consideration to the cause of the worker, and by his acts in the future aid those who toil to the best of their ability.

MANY SIGNATORIES.

SCHOOL DIRECTOR URGES SUPPORT FOR ALAMEDA COUNTY CANDIDATE

Many of my friends have asked my status on the United States senatorial position and I wish to define it right here. I have personally known Joseph R. Knowland for twenty years, in fact during all of his political career. I can state that Mr. Knowland is the man for the position from every viewpoint.

As an ex-member of the Carmen's Union and one of the charter members of that organization, I have carefully followed Mr. Knowland's labor record. I know from personal acquaintance that he has the best interests of the people at heart and if

Jury Out Nine Days;
Still Seeking Verdict

SCRANTON, Pa., Oct. 31.—Although they have been out for nearly nine days, members of the Peggan murder jury are still hopelessly deadlocked. John P. Thomas, the foreman, yesterday sent a letter to Judge Edwards, who was on the bench at the trial, asking that the jurors be discharged as there was no possibility of them reaching an agreement.

Some of the jurors declared several days ago that they were prepared to remain all winter while others pleaded to be sent home. The court at that time informed them that verdict of some kind must be rendered in a case where the commonwealth asks for a verdict of murder in the first degree.

AMERICAN BELLE HERE FOR VISIT FROM ORIENT

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 31.—Though claiming the Stars and Stripes for her own, red hair Miss Georgia Treszine, known as the "American" American girl in the Orient, is spending her first days on American soil in this city today. Born and raised in Japan, she set foot on American territory for the first time Saturday upon the arrival of the Sintaya.

She came here with her father, W. F. Treszine, manager of the Yokohama English and Iron Works who left his New York home two years ago for the Orient.

Possessed of unusual beauty and vivacity, Miss Treszine is known as the American belle of the Orient. She has distinguished herself as an expert swimmer, and is a skillful actress. This summer she maintained a series of spectacular performances on the lines.

It was shortly before the big steamship sailed from Japan that Miss Treszine dived into the rail after a doll dropped by a passing crowd that Panama would lose her remaining national port.

FT. MASON TUNNEL IS FORMALLY OPENED

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 31.—The Fort Mason "united part of the State's belt line railroad system connecting the main freight depot of the city with the United States tranship docks and the Panama Canal shipping grounds was officially opened today after a train of 100 passenger cars had run through the tunnel under the San Francisco Bay.

Her telephoners abilities she demonstrated aboard the vessel by presenting a call to her own line, called by passersby the "Shanty Telephone."

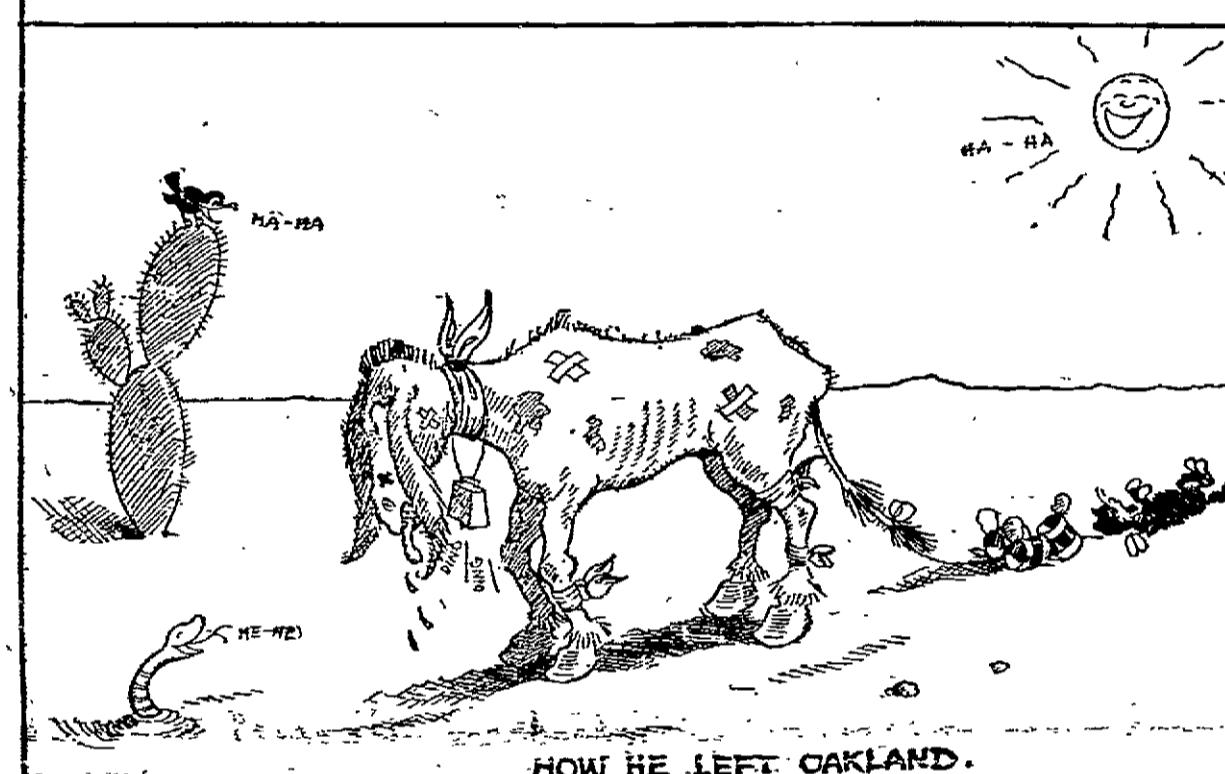

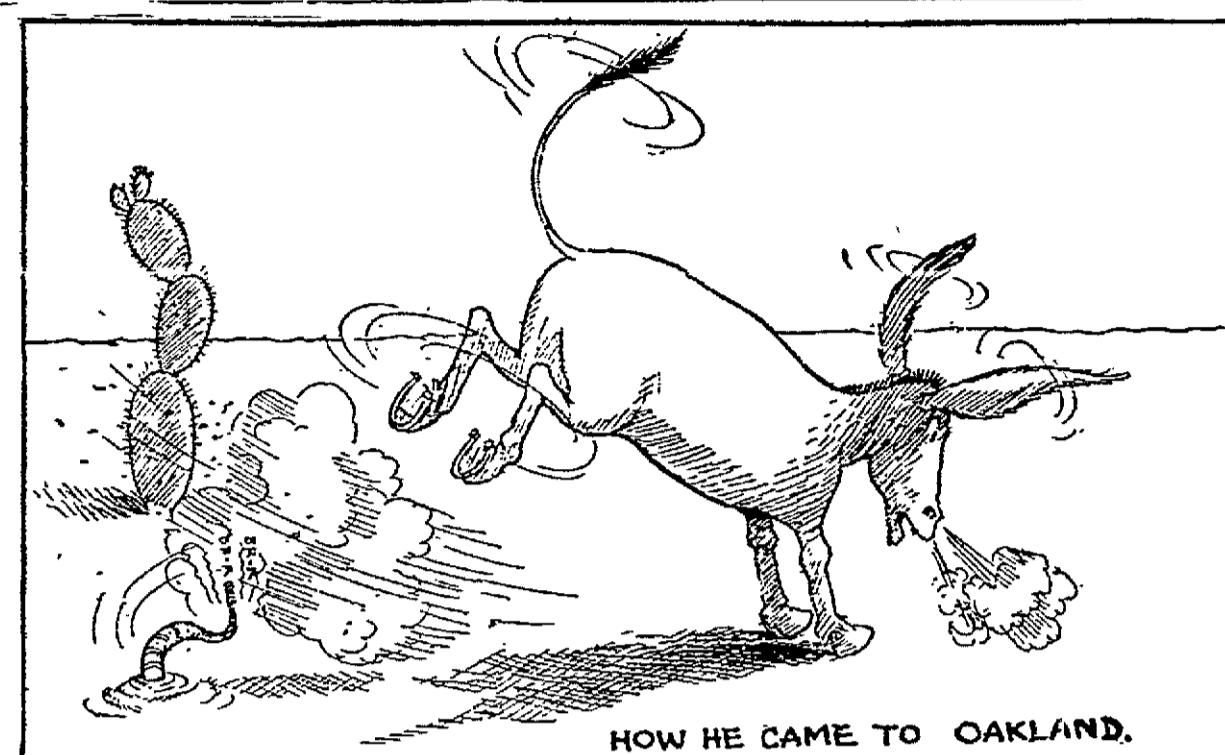

"It is wonderful to see one's own country after having pictured it all one's life," declared Miss Treszine today. "San Francisco is all so beautiful and so wonderful. I love the trees, the skies, the gardens and the water. And when we see all America is so lovely. Oh! I'm so happy I've come to see my country at last."

FILE WILL OF
LATE MRS. LITTLE

Codicils Revoke Prior Nomination of Executor, Naming Son and Daughter.

Disposing of a large estate, the will of the late Mrs. Sarah Little, one of the founders of Fabiola Hospital, who died October 21, at the age of 72 years, was filed for probate in the Superior Court today. The will carries four codicils, the last of which revokes prior nominations of executors and names a daughter, Caroline Halsted Little, and a son, Wear C. Little, to carry out the provisions of her last testament. The last codicil was filed two days before the death of the testatrix. The property is divided among the five children, Mrs. Helen Ketcham, William H. Little, Jose M. Little, Caroline H. Little and Wear C. Little. The share of William H. Little is a life interest held in trust with disposition to his children upon his death.

Among the personal bequests to members of her family are silverware, bric-a-brac and jewelry, and an old-fashioned bedstead, "upon which his father and himself were born," is bequeathed to the foundling son, Wear C. Little.

Mrs. Little was the widow of the late Col. William C. Little and for many years has made her home at "Littlebear," 3421 Broadway. She was a cousin of Justice Mahlon H. Finer of the United States Supreme Court. "I Little was for many years manager of the Sutro estate, and was engaged in the lumber business.

PICKPOCKET GETS WATCH
G. J. Garside, 269 Newton avenue, reported to the police that while he was in a crowd at the Pan-Pacific theater, a pickpocket stole his gold watch, valued at $20, and an Elk tooth fob. Captain Mazor, 2307 Harrison street, reported to the police that two auto tires with demountable rims, valued at $150, were stolen from his machine at Oakland and Bay Vista avenue. Crockery valued at $20 was stolen last night by a burglar who broke into a Southern Pacific freight car at the foot of Market street.

RELIFF, YULETIDE PLAN TO GIVE, NOT TO SPEND

WASHINGTON, Oct. 31.—Red Cross officials here announced last night that they were working out a plan to divert some of the money usually spent in this country for Christmas extravagances to the relief of the distressed and destitute peoples of Europe.

The movement originated with suggestions submitted by Jacob H. Schiff of New York, Representative French of Idaho, Mrs. C. T. McClinton of Lexington, Ky., and Henry H. Fox of New York. Each of these supports substantially this idea, outlined by Representative French:

"There is no man or woman, no boy or girl, in our country who would not gladly forgo part or all of his ordinary Christmas gifts for the relief of the stricken soldiers and the men, women and children to whom hunger, cold and disease are already grim specters. Surely a Christmas to us cannot be the joyful period it is at most times with our fellow beings, people of our own blood, struggling in the abyss of despair."

U.S. SENATOR AUTO SKIDS ON OCEAN HIGHWAY
NO WHITE HOPE

Two Injured; Ball Player in Early Morning Crash.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 31.—One man was instantly killed and a man and a woman were painfully hurt on the Ocean boulevard at 5:13 this morning when a semi-passenger touring car with a driver unfamiliar with the neighborhood at the wheel, skidded, crashed into a fence and turned over, spilling all of the occupants to the roadway.

The dead: CHARLES STOLL, former jockey, 21 years old, known as Jimmy, cigar seller, employed Thalia dance hall.

The injured: ANDREW N. PATERSON, proprietor of the San Ramon Valley garage, Walnut Creek; severe contusion of right knee; bruises and abrasions of the body.

RUTH KELLY, employed Thalia dance hall 1678 Sacramento street; lacerated right ear; suffering from shock.

The other occupant, who escaped unharmed, was Joseph Tobin, utility officer of the San Francisco baseball club of the Coast League, who lives at 426 Brush street, Oakland.

Miss Frankie Woods, employed Thalia dance hall, 172 Columbus avenue, and Ernest G. Givens, a merchant of Martinez.

Deputy Sheriff Lee Updyke.

H. Fralcy, a prominent Republican.

He is said to have wiped a cigar on Justice McCarron's face, whom he found standing on a corner, and to have hit Zeb Ray, a prominent Democrat. Ray did not strike back, and Pittman then went his way, the report goes, striking six more persons. These were:

A. H. Stewart, United States marshal for Nevada.

W. E. Sharon, State Supremo Justice P. A. McCarron.

Clay Tallman, Commissioner of the General Land Office, Washington.

Deputy Sheriff Lee Updyke.

H. Fralcy, a prominent Republican.

He is said to have wiped a cigar on Justice McCarron's face, whom he found standing on a corner, and to have hit Zeb Ray, a prominent Democrat. Ray did not strike back, and Pittman then went his way, the report goes, striking six more persons. These were:

Then without a word it is said he hit Stoddard, from the Petaluma, California, with a right swing to the jaw. Pittman went down and said, "That is enough." Then his friends took him home.

The accident occurred at the intersection of the Great Highway and Sloat boulevard, opposite Murray's resort. A big seven-passenger automobile, with Paterson at the wheel, approached the curve at too great a speed. The driver attempted to turn when he saw he had almost swerved into the fence at the side of the road.

The wheels responded to the operation of the steering gear, but he had attempted to turn too quickly and the car careened over on its side, one of the wheels collapsing. The car turned turtle, pinning Stoll beneath it and driving the other five occupants to the ground. The night bartender at Murray's heard the screams of the women, hurried over and after he had summoned aid the dying man was taken from beneath the car. The park ambulance was summoned, but when Stewart-Hafferman reached the scene the former jockey was already dead.

The other members of the party were bundled into the ambulance and hurried to the hospital.

The accident was the culmination of a joy ride and a tour of the town resorts, which had its beginning at Martinez in the early afternoon. According to Paterson, Givens telephoned him to bring his automobile to Martinez about 4 o'clock. There he picked up Tobin and Tobin, who had been duck hunting on the marshes in the vicinity of the Contra Costa county seat.

They made their way leisurely to the Thalia. There they met the two women and picked up Stoll, who was invited to become a member of the party. They started out and stopped several times on the way to the beach. They were heading back for town when Paterson, who was not absolutely sure of his bearings in the darkness, failed to count on the short distance to the turn at the south end of the Beach boulevard and the fatal crash was the result.

Paterson was charged with manslaughter by Detective Sergeant James Skelly.

HIT BY TRAIN.

C. M. MacGregor, 623 Broadway, Piedmont, and a party, including members of his family, were badly shaken up in an automobile accident early this morning when the machine he was driving was struck by a Southern Pacific switch engine at First and Webster streets. The automobile was struck and hurled sideways several feet from the tracks, the mudguards, radiator and other parts of the machine being badly smashed. The occupants were thrown about and slightly bruised, but nobody was seriously hurt. The switch engine was in charge of Engineer Stewart.

NERRY BLAZE ENDANGERS LIVES

Women and Children Rescued by Nerry Firemen and Police.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 31.—A fire that did from $10,000 to $12,000 damage and which, but for the heroism of five young women, several daring firemen, a nerry special officer and several cool-headed citizens, would have cost more than half a dozen lives, raged from basement to attic in an apartment house at the northeast corner of Stockton and Chestnut streets last night before being brought under control.

Mrs. Hanna Mattson, wife of John Mattson, was seen at a second-story window. Hoseman William J. Gleason of engine company No. 28, placed a ladder as close as possible to the window. Holding to the ladder with one hand he called to the woman, who by that time was hanging to the sill with her hands, to drop into his arms. She did. Gleason was unable to hold her, and she dropped to the sidewalk. Her fall was broken by Special Officer R. E. Barry, Hoseman J. A. Riddell of engine company No. 28, and A. Lagomarsino, 37 Chestnut street, who stood under the ladder. Mrs. Mattson was not seriously injured.

Mrs. Norma and Rose Recigalini, daughters of the part-owner of the building, and the Misses Marie and Flora Teardo, 1638 Stockton street, who were on the top floor when the fire broke out, came stumbling out of the Chestnut Street entrance. In their arms they bore the screaming and half hysterical other four children of the Bacigalupi family. They were: Elmeron, 5 years old; Alfred, 6; John, 8, and Miss Irene, 11.

Around the corner on Stockton street, Sam Steer, 435 Chestnut street, jumped through a window a few feet from the sidewalk and rescued four children he found crying in their beds. Mrs. Anna Forasassi, 30, wife of Dante Forasassi, leaped to the ground, and with outspread arms, caught her 2-year-old daughter Anna, who had fallen through the window to her by Miss Seema Cheek, maid of the other children.

The fire started from a leaking gas pipe in the basement immediately under the stairway leading to the upper floors.

The building is jointly owned by Marco S. Bacigalupi, who has stores at 1044 Kearny street and 485 Broadway, and Mrs. Mary Gottell, who both lived on the top floor.

PUBLIC QUESTIONS ARE DEBATED IN SCHOOLS

Debating societies of the high school and the grammar schools of this city have been arguing upon the amendment of the constitution proposed by the people.

The Lockwood and the Grant Schools have both given their views on the various measures. Mexico and the Philippines Islands have also formed clubs to debate.

The Technical Society of the Oakland Technical high school will debate. "Resolved, that the Philippines Islands should remain a permanent possession of the United States." The affirmative side will be led by Arthur Mack and Max Nye. It will be the second of the series of debates held under the auspices of the History-English class of the school.

The Assembly and the Exchange debating clubs of the Oakland High school debated yesterday afternoon on the question: "Resolved, that the United States should not become a permanent member of the League of Nations." The negative orators will be Dorothy Hopkins, captain of last year's debating team; Gertrude Carpenter, and Helen McGregor, who are members of the team. Burns, John Chestnut, Captain of last year's team and Edwin de Gole.

FAMED SCHOLAR DIES.

BOSTON, Oct. 31.—Dr. Robert Lilley, noted Oriental scholar, is dead in his home in Grafton of heart failure, aged 75. He was a native of Scotland, and in 1867 went to China, where he mastered the language and traveled almost to the borders of Tibet. He moved to Japan in 1874 and identified himself with the spread of sound literature in Japanese. He perfected the system of printing for the blind now in use in Japan. Dr. Lilley in 1881 settled in New York, where he became editor of the Century Dictionary, and also edited the last four volumes of the Columbia Encyclopedia.

MENLO PARK, Oct. 31.—The regents of the University of California, and the Charles N. Felton estate, owning all the stock of the Bear Gulch Water Company, which supplies southern San Mateo county with water, have decided to make extensive improvements in the plant to the extent of about $250,000.

SAN MATEO, Oct. 31.—The family of Junius H. Brown, a wealthy San Francisco humorist, was disturbed while at dinner last night by the breaking out of a fire from an overheated furnace in the basement. The blaze was extinguished by the family with buckets. Little damage was done.

SACRAMENTO, Oct. 31.—Through a ruling of the war department, received in this city, First Lieutenant G. R. Castle of the Eighth Company of Coast Artillery, who flushed first in the sport recently held in this city, is disqualified and must return to the service by him to the state to compete in the winter. Castle competed in 1912 at Camp Funston and because of this competition was ruled out.

The order was understood to mean that only last year's competitors were ruled out. This ruling will give the medal for highest score to Captain C. F. Armstrong, Quartermaster Corps, and will make Second Lieutenant H. Constwick, Company E, Fifth Infantry, second. Other scores remain the same.

CLUBHOUSE PURCHASE PLAN IN ABEYANCE

SAN LEANDRO, Oct. 31.—The raising of $11,000 necessary to purchase the proposed clubhouse in the annexed district is considered by San Leandro clubwomen too big an undertaking at the present time and the scheme is in abeyance. One of the reasons for the temporary abandonment of the idea of acquiring large premises to be used as a clubhouse in the annexed section of the city is the fact that there are several other important matters on hand for which large sums of money will have to be raised.

A meeting of those interested in the proposed clubhouse proposal was held yesterday at the new home of Mrs. J. E. Elmer. Mrs. Elmer is leaving this place, and it was suggested that her house be purchased and used as a meeting place for civic and social organizations for future gatherings.

A number of society leaders were enthusiastic over the proposal, contending that the steady growth of the community west of San Leandro creek warranted a considerable expenditure in putting up a fine place.

It was decided that $5000 of the required $11,000 should be raised as soon as possible, and that the club members who used the clubrooms pay a certain sum each month, which would go towards defraying the balance of the cost of the club headquarters.
